A photograph of four young people (two women and two men) standing on a grassy hill, looking out over a vast landscape at sunset. They have their arms around each other's shoulders, suggesting a sense of camaraderie and support. The sun is low on the horizon, creating a warm, golden glow.

Leadership is a skill that will
work for you
for the rest of your life.

On this camp we will discuss the attributes that are important in relation to a leader, including relationships, integrity, honesty and more.

We will also discuss the importance of choices. Being able to lead ourselves is vital - otherwise, how can we lead others?

As always, there will be some awesome activities on camp all designed around building the capacity to lead ourselves and others.
